BUSINESS POLICIES

LOSS & DAMAGE WAIVER GUIDE

Under the terms of the Rental Contract, rented equipment must be returned in the same condition as received, reasonable wear and tear excepted, making you responsible for the cost of repairing damaged equipment.

In consideration of an additional 10% of the gross rental charges, Kingsboro Lumber Co. agrees to modify your responsibilities by giving up our right to recover the cost of repairing or replacing rental equipment returned damaged as a result of:

Accident	Windstorm	Explosion	Auto
Loss due To fire*	Flood	Earthquake	Collision
Burglary	Smoke	Riot	Lightning
Vandalism*	Hail	Dropping	Aircraft

* Police Report Required

 Police Report and proof of forced entry required

Note: Damage Waiver only covers burglary of audio/visual and transit/levels

Kingsboro Lumber Company would recover the cost of repairing or replacing equipment when returned in a damaged condition as a result of:

Abuse or misuse	Exceeding rated capacities
Tire Damage	Theft (other than burglary)
Loss of accessory	Violation of Rental Agreement
Intentional damage	Actions of third parties
Improper servicing	Mysterious disappearance
Improper transporting

Damage Waiver is NOT Insurance. Kingsboro Lumber Company, or its agents shall be subrogated for any recovery rights that the renter may have for damage to the equipment rented in the form of insurance protection for such damage or loss.
